

The Society members pay dues to the Society to provide them with meeting notices and educational information. They see the use of obtaining information by fax as a benefit of membership and to require signatures to obtain that which is expected as part of membership is redundant, time consuming and cost prohibitive.